To Mackinlay.

[Written from Bath ?] Does not intend that Goulding and Co. shall be asked to pay twice for poems already paid for, but referred in his letter to poems intended for publication with music. Cites Moore's dealings with Powers as being a like circumstance. Is unwilling to relinquish his rights if that means that his songs will be printed in magazines, the Blackwood alone being of a standard high enough to meet his requirements. Alludes to the gift of a bracelet to Mrs. Bayly for which he intends to pay with a song. Will talk of the matter of auth[illegible] rights with his friends, Rogers, Hook and Luttrell [illegible] L.S. 5p. 9 x 7 3/4 in.

[Washington, D.C.] Mr. Smith of Hartford has been trying to obstruct the passage of the bill, but the chairman of the committee, Mr. Hempfield, says that the question of internal improvements is certain to be taken up. Probably it will come with the bill for constructing the road from Buffalo to New Orleans. That would open the way for the provision of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the South Carolina canals. To Deborah Weston

«Boston?» The writer sends this letter by Caroline, who will presumably spend Thanksgiving with the family. Remarks that Anne «Warren Weston» appears to enjoy herself very much, but the writer has come to the conclusion that there is little enjoyment in this world. Hopes that Deborah's knee is better now. Is spending "about half of the time" with Maria «Weston Chapman»; "I enjoy myself greatly while with her, and feel rather unpleasantly when I am separated." Tells about the "rage" for transferring pictures to wood, about her fondness for playing the piano, about reading aloud, etc. They go to Mr. «Alexander» Young's church, but "drop into Mr. Greenwood's" in bad weather. [illegible] or a long letter and sends jocular Thanksgiving wishes.

To William Lloyd Garrison

<Brooklyn, (Conn.)> Praises W.L.G.'s zeal for the Anti-Slavery cause. His opinions on some points were changed by W.L.G.'s arguments. Cannot agree with W.L.G. in his opposition to the Colonization Society. Believes that the colonization schemes "will be introductory to more efficient measures." People are beginning to think that something should be done about the evils of Slavery. The Colonization Society has opened a channel through which "correct sentiments" concerning the slaves can be disseminated. Finds that the supporters of the Society do not differ as much with his opinions as he supposed. Will have to combat the current belief in the negro's inferiority. The Society t[illegible] that the negroes should show their ability in Liberia.
